Antiques and Afternoon Tea

On 6th February the Friends held an Antiques and Tea event. Forty people were entertained by Philip Stone, a valuer from Durrants Professional Auctioneers and Valuers, who gave a very interesting talk on antiques, highlighted by some items that he brought to show us that would be going for auction shortly. We all brought in two antique items to be valued and had a great time discovering their history and worth. Everyone enjoyed the traditional afternoon tea that was served during the afternoon and a profit of £245 was made for the Friends funds.
